- DRE allows reschedule requests on-line, by phone, and through the mail, examination dates fill quickly and a particular date may not be available; therefore, requests cannot be guaranteed.
- If you do not provide a date on item #13, you will be scheduled for the earliest available date in the area chosen.
- ➤ Use of a real estate school/business mailing address (item #2) may cause a delay in mail delivery. You may change your mailing address online using eLicensing at www.dre.ca.gov or by submitting a Salesperson Examination Change Application (RE 415A).
- Exam date notification—Processing timeframes are listed at www.dre. ca.gov. We encourage you to check these timeframes to more accurately estimate when the processing of your application should be completed.
  - If you have not received an examination confirmation notice within the timeframes listed on our Web site, you can obtain your scheduled date through eLicensing.
  - If you have not yet been assigned an exam date or received a deficiency letter and your application was submitted prior to the processing timeframes, check with your bank or credit card company to assure that DRE has processed your fee.
- ➤ Reasonable Accommodation Request Applicants with limitations requiring a reasonable accommodation must submit a Reasonable Accommodation Request for Examination (RE 413), as well as the required documentation as noted on RE 413, with an exam application and mail or fax the application, documentation, and fee to DRE for processing. Do not attempt to schedule a reasonable accommodation exam on eLicensing, as it does not provide such service. Compliance with reasonable requests may be limited by scheduling constraints.
- Use eLicensing to reschedule an examination, review your examination results and records, request a duplicate schedule or result notice, and change your examination mailing address.
- ➤ If you are simultaneously making application for both the salesperson and broker examinations, you must submit a separate package (application, qualifying documentation and fee) for each examination to be scheduled. Fees are not transferable from one exam to another and will not be refunded.
- > Exam fee valid for two years An original application and initial fee is valid for a two year period. Missing requirements may be submitted anytime within the two year period after DRE receipt of your application/fee. A new application, fee, and current qualifications will be required if you fail to qualify and pass the examination during that two year period. Note: If you already have an examination application on file, but have not yet passed your examination, the two year period for your examination application started on the date your initial examination application was submitted.

CURRENTLY OR PREVIOUSLY LICENSED?

> If you currently have a real estate salesperson license in California, or if your license expired less than two years ago, you are not eligible to take a salesperson examination. If you have renewal rights, you may obtain a new license through the renewal process.

EXAMINATION REQUIREMENTS

In addition to this application and fee, salesperson applicants must submit an official transcript or credit certificate showing proof of completion of a three semester or four quarter unit college-level course or an equivalent DRE approved course in Real Estate Principles, Real Estate Practice and one additional course which should be chosen from the following list of courses: Accounting, Business Law, Common Interest Developments, Computer Applications in Real Estate, Escrows, Legal Aspects of Real Estate, Mortgage Loan Brokering & Lending, Property Management, Real Estate Appraisal, Real Estate Economics, Real Estate Finance and Real Estate Office Administration.

The three semester-unit or four quarter-unit courses must be completed through a regionally accredited college or university or an approved DRE private course sponsor. Course(s) completed through a foreign institution of higher learning must be evaluated by a foreign credentials evaluation service approved by DRE.

Refer to Instructions To License Applicants handbook and Examination Description form (RE 425) for further information, qualification requirements, examination content and examination rules. These materials are available on the DRE Web site at www.dre.ca.gov or from any DRE office.

SUBVERSION OF EXAMINATION

It is a misdemeanor for any person to subvert or attempt to subvert any licensing examination. Sections 123, 123.5, 496, 10153.01 and 10153.1 of the Business and Professions (B&P) Code relate to test security and provide that DRE may deny, suspend, restrict or revoke the license of an applicant or licensee who subverts or attempts to subvert a licensing examination.

In addition to any other penalties, a person found guilty of violating Section 123 of the B&P Code shall be liable for the actual damages sustained by the agency administering the examination not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and the costs of litigation.

PAYMENT & MAILING INFORMATION

Franchise Tax Board. The Franchise Tax Board will use your number to establish identification exclusively for tax purposes. These code sections also require that each application for a new license or renewal provides notification on the application, that the Board of Equalization and the Franchise Tax Board will share taxpayer information with the Department of Real Estate, and that failure to pay tax obligations may result in a suspension or denial of a license. The Board of Equalization and Franchise Tax Board require the Department to collect social security numbers and federal taxpayer identification numbers for the purposes of matching the names of the 500 largest tax delinquencies pursuant to Section 7003 or 19195 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Your social security numbers and federal taxpayer identification number shall not be deemed public records and shall not be open to the public for inspection.

The Real Estate Law and the Regulations of the Commissioner require applicants to provide the Department with specific information. If all or any part of the required information is not provided, processing may be delayed. In addition, the Commissioner may suspend or revoke a license, or in the case of a license applicant, may deny the issuance for misstatements of facts (including a failure to disclose a material fact) in an application for a license.

The information requested in this form is primarily used to furnish license status information to the Department's Enforcement Section, and to answer inquiries and give information to the public on license status, mailing and business addresses and actions taken to deny, revoke, restrict or suspend licenses for cause. This information may be transferred to real estate licensing agencies in other states, law enforcement agencies (City Police, Sheriff's Departments, District Attorney, Attorney General, F.B.I.), and any other regulatory agencies (i.e., Department of Business Oversight, Department of Insurance, Department of Consumer Affairs, California Bar Association).
